The Presidential Campaign

As the machinery of a political campaign, if it is to be an earnest one, is not all arranged in one day, we submit whether it is not time for the Union party of Oregon to buckle on the armor and prepare to take the field. Delay on the part of antagonistic and unpatriotic organizations, instead of deterring, should lead us to the adoption of more active measures for securing the political integrity of the State. We have no fears but that LINCOLN and JOHNSON will receive a larger support than has ever yet been accorded the candidates of any party here, but this fact should only incite our friends to redouble their ordinary exertions, and add to the vote as much as possible. Our State possesses an immense area, when facilities for travel are considered, and it will require no little time to canvass it. We must be as prompt as our adversaries; form loyal clubs, and learn the political preferences of every one entitled to a vote. If the work could be commenced as early as Monday next, there would be none too much time in which to disabuse a respectable portion of the public mind, and impress upon it the wholesome truth before election. To be sure, we have no opponent in the field thus far, Fremont being probably but a whipper-in of copperheads, nor is it likely that any formidable candidate will be presented, yet we have an important duty to perform, and we enjoin upon our loyal fellow citizens promptness in entering upon it.

CAPT. OLNEY'S COMMAND.—Notwithstanding the reports which have twice reached us from the Dalles that the Road Guard was to depart within a few hours, it will not be able to move forward until the 18th, as it cannot go in the absence of means for transportation, and Capt. Caldwell's supply train is expected to arrive at that time. Capt. Olney still lacks $1,000 of enough to defray the expense of equipping and and mounting his detachment, and we hope our citizens here will contibute and send forward something—as much as they can—toward the making up of the sum. The want of a few petty dollars should not be permitted to detain the expedition a moment.

NEW MATERIAL FOR MAKING PAPER.—Corn husks are now used, with great profit, as a material for making paper in Vienna. The paper which is of fine quality is now as cheap as that made from rags—although the corn husks are imported from Italy and Hungary. From the husks are manufactured yarn, paper stuff, flour dough, linen, drillings, oil cloth, knapsacks, fire buckets, tar covers, also, letter envelopes, flour paper, cigarette papers, photographic and parchment papers. The cost of manufacturing at the imperial mills to date of statement, was 273,740 florins, producing 379,000, a profit of 105,260 florins. This discovery has been made by Dr Atner, who has taken out a patent for it in this country. The new material thus discovered for making paper and other fabrics, which can be furnished in the Eastern States is immense and we hope will be so used as to reduce the price of paper, which is now sold for 33⅓ per cent more than it was two years ago.

MORE SNAKE INDIANS OUTRAGES.—A private letter from Capt Olney, at the Dalles, says: "I have just learned that the Snake Indians have made a raid upon the settlers in Antelope Valley, sixty-five miles from here, on the road to Canyon city driving off all the stock in that valley. It is also reported that they have been seen within thirty miles of this place, on the east side of the Des Chutes river."

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—We wish our correspondents to bear in mind that anonymous letters cannot receive that attention which their importance would sometimes seem to demand. We are always glad to receive interesting letters from any part of the country, but unless statements involving the character or prospects of persons named are accompanied by the writer's proper signature, we cannot take the risk of giving them publicity.

STATE LANDS.—We learn that Gov Gibbs has located for the State 350,000 acres thus far, only a little more than half the quantity the State is entitled to, and that it will be very difficult to find enough, even of second rate land, to make up the compliment.

We learn by private telegram to a gentleman in this city, that Hon J. R. McBride left New York on the steamer of July 13th, and may be expected to arrive among his constituency in about thirty days from that time.

OUR FOURTH PAGE.—The first part of an interesting sea-yarn will be found on the last page this morning. It will be concluded in Monday's issue.

PUB DOCS.—Hon J. W. Nesmith has our thanks for valuable public documents, of a late date.

Letter from Auburn

[illegible]

Auburn, July 11, 1864

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

As I have just arrived from a trip to the new mines discovered in this county and in the vicinity of Eagle Creek, and as people are always anxious to hear something new, I will [illegible] interest [illegible] some of your readers with a report [illegible] new [illegible] discovered [illegible] some seventy [illegible] Nevertheless [illegible] Auburn [illegible] much [illegible] Mr [illegible] Wells Knight [illegible] excitement in the [illegible] about [illegible] [illegible] quartz [illegible] A gentleman from [illegible] is about to [illegible] with the [illegible] mill and [illegible] both as custom mills [illegible] crush about [illegible] pounds of [illegible] in twenty four hours. My experience in quartz [illegible] Messrs. Rankin & Co [illegible] Rockle vein [illegible] 1,500 pounds of rock $1,500 [illegible] The miners around Auburn all seem to be doing well, as the merchants do not complain of having [illegible] credit business—which speaks well for any mining camp.

A fatal affair occurred on Burnt river at the toll gate near Miller's ranch, on the [illegible] of this month. A half breed by the name of Greenwood [illegible] named Keoncer [illegible] you charged me [illegible] Greenwood [illegible] Keoncer stepped to run at to his hut and when the [illegible] and wounded him, from which he died in excruciating pain in about twelve hours. Greenwood then came on to the Express ranch where he threatened to take the house and dared any one to interfere when Mr Scott stepped out of the bar room into another room and procured a revolver and as he opened the door to return he saw Greenwood had his revolver pointed at him. Both presented revolvers and fired at the same time, each receiving a flesh wound [illegible] Greenwood then left [illegible] the Straw ranch and was there [illegible] who captured and brought him to the house and a guard was set over him. Towards evening the citizens of Burnt river and Auburn collected together and demanded the prisoner [illegible] took him about four miles east until they came to a juniper, where they left him with a rope around his neck and tied to the top of a tree his feet lacking about ten inches of coming to the ground. There he remained until yesterday, when the body was taken down and buried. He got just [illegible] none too soon. There [illegible] three more in some way implicated in the matter who have skedaddled [illegible] I consider it proper to say he was one of the "chivs," and a good copperhead.

Yours truly,
UNANGO LEGO

Letter From Owyhee

We have been permitted to make some extracts from a letter just received by a gentleman in this city, relating to the value of the quartz lodes of Owyhee. The writer of the letter is too well known to our citizens to require an avouchment from us.

IN THE OWYHEE MOUNTAINS, }
July 4th 1864. }

MY DEAR SIR: Here I am, in the richest part of the world, seeing wonders with every hour of the day. To say that I am exceedingly gratified with my trip does not express the thing exactly, for I could enjoy myself for months in knocking about these mountains, and acquainting myself with the grand achievements of this vast laboratory of nature. I have visited already some of the chiefest lodes, although I have been here but three days, so far as my knowledge extends, I should say that the Oro Fino ranks as first. The richness of the ore that comes from this lode is truly wonderful. Mr Crane, whom I found to be a very intelligent and clever gentleman, is working with great energy and assiduity towards a complete development of its richness. He has commenced the construction of a road to the mill on [illegible] which will be finished in a fortnight. He only commenced work on Tuesday last, and has already made over a mile of superior mountain road. The grade is good, and the width of the road greater than mountain roads generally.

I think you may look for "bricks" from the Oro Fino mines within a month. Ten feet of that lode is enough for any one. I will have to defer to [illegible] other letter the remarks I proposed to make as to a description of this magnificent section of our continent. The only work being done on the Oro Fino besides that of Crane & Driggs, is by [illegible] and his associate. My friend, the discovery claim on this lode is a perfect depot—a treasure pile—of gold and silver. I never expect to see the like again.

The Morning Star is another magnificent lode. It is as rich as heart could desire. These lodes are all working right, that is to say, that they increase in width as you sink upon the vein. In Crane's main shaft he has got down to a width of thirty inches. Pretty good encouragement for a start upon a vein of an inch in width.

I hope to get some feet before I return home in the Fall may be by discovery, if not, otherwise as I may be able. A very rich and promising lode has been discovered since my arrival, called the "Chipmunk."

Excuse this scrawl, as I write in haste, and without the usual conveniences.

Yours, always sincerely
GEO. L. CURRY

The Fourth in Baker County.

LA GRANDE, BAKER COUNTY, OGN., }

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

Thinking you and many of your numerous readers might be desirous of knowing how the "Glorious Fourth" was celebrated by us away up among the mountains and timber [illegible] Baker county, I send a short account of how the thing was did. Exciting News from Washington

REBELS BURN MONTGOMERY BLAIR'S RESIDENCE!

Rebel Army of Invasion reported to be 15,000 Strong, including 5,000 Cavalry.

Rebels Retreat across the Potomac near Rockville, closely pressed by our Cavalry.

BALTIMORE, July 11.—The news from Washington [illegible] the Rockville road commenced at an early hour this morning [illegible] rebels came to a point [illegible] miles west of [illegible] their progress on that road was [illegible] and they disappeared [illegible] Subsequently we heard them skirmishing between 11 and 12 o'clock, [illegible] Seventh Street turnpike, near Clagget's farm and [illegible] Blair's residence.

It is reported to-day that the rebels burned Blair's house.

[illegible] eight hundred encamped at Rockville last night.

[illegible] refugees who arrived from the vicinity of Edward's Ferry report the rebels [illegible] force variously estimated at from 12,000 to 15,000.

[illegible] commands their advance in that [illegible] and Imboden commands the cavalry now [illegible] around the fortifications.

All quiet in front of our picket lines upon what is known as the River road up to noon to-day.

The [illegible] says that the numbers and purposes of the rebels are [illegible] conflicting.

It is said that the rebel force is not of sufficient weight to make a serious attack upon the fortifications at Washington, and that it not their intention to do so.

[illegible] we have just received the following from a source which has, on repeated occasions, had the earliest and most accurate information in regard to the rebel movements in Virginia. The rebel army of invasion have marched down the valley 45,000 strong, including 8000 cavalry, under Breckinridge, Rawson, Imboden and McCausland.

Longstreet was at Gordonsville on Tuesday last with additional forces to join the rebel army of invasion, and it is the intention of the army to attempt the capture of Washington by surprise.

The Virginia Central Railroad has been repaired and is now in running order between Richmond and Staunton.

In a fight at Aldie Mosby captured 81 of our cavalry, killed 20 and captured a 12 pounder field piece.

Kincheloe, in command of one company is operating near Fairfax Court House and near Occoquan.

A later dispatch says: Up to 2 15 p. m. the state of affairs in the vicinity of Rabbit's Branch Post Office continued the same. During the morning there had been no general engagement, but considerable cavalry skirmishing had been going on at intervals. The enemy have not made their appearance anywhere within the range of our guns, and thus far have not shown the least disposition to do so.

NEW YORK, July 12.—The rebel raiders have destroyed all the telegraph lines on the turnpike between Philadelphia and Baltimore.

The World prints the following private letter:

LEXINGTON, July 12.—Yesterday we marched from Midway, being quickened in our advance by the sound of Cook's guns, engaged with McCausland who held the place. They defended it with great obstinacy, burning bridges and playing on the hills as we came up with shells. Bushwhackers were behind every tree. This was madness on their part as we had beaten them before, and being joined by Gens Cook and Merrill, were now of course able to whip them again. It seems, however, that McCausland was waiting for Breckinridge, who had been detached with his division from Lee's army, driving us back, or at least holding us between there, Richmond or Lynchburg—which ever we strike for. The supposed plan is to put the broken brigades in the Valley under Imboden, Jenkins, Mandeville, Jackson, McCausland, Jones, etc. They rallied together upon a division of Lee's veterans, then gave us another trial for the Valley. This morning we burned and entirely destroyed the Virginia Military Institute. To-morrow we move at daylight, but we have no idea in what direction. Our situation is pressing and critical; and if Lee is not fully employed by Gen. Grant, he can send down troops enough via Lynchburg railroad and overwhelm us. But if Grant will hold all Lee's force at Richmond this column will make the rebel capital untenable and will in a few days cut off the last main artery of supplies.

BALTIMORE, July 14.—The Washington Chronicle to-day says: The rebels first made their appearance at Colesville, north of Washington, at 4, P. M., on the 11th. Our informant says the force of the rebels on the north side of the Potomac, consisted of Johnston's, Early's and Hill's division. We saw the most of Johnston's and Early's men passing through Colesville. When they came into Maryland nearly all were afoot, but they soon picked up all the horses in the country. Now the most of them are mounted. Johnston took the road east from Colesville and moved towards Bellville. Early with his division moved towards Washington on the 7th street road. It is understood that Hill's division also marched towards Washington on a line west of Early. Our informant conversed with several rebel officers and he thinks it was not their intention to attempt to take Washington, but to distract the attention of Grant from Richmond. Johnston had 7 pieces of artillery, but our informant didn't see any with Early.

On the morning of the 12th the pickets of Johnston's and Early's divisions fired into each other near Colesville through a mistake. F. P. Blair's residence was the headquarters of the rebels while in the vicinity. Nothing there was disturbed, owing to the former friendly relations between Gen Breckinridge and the owner. Several of the wounded were left at his house. The residence of Montgomery Blair was burned with all its contents. At an early hour yesterday morning, the rebels fell back from their position, north of the fortifications at Tennallytown, to Rockville, closely pursued by our force of cavalry. These engaged the enemy throughout the day with varying success. Rockville was in our possession a half dozen times but reinforcements sent by the enemy arriving they would re-occupy it until our turn came again. Such was the fighting in the vicinity of Rockville yesterday. Neither party gained any decided advantage.

PHILADELPHIA, July 14.—A special to the Inquirer dated at Washington this morning has the following:

The enemy began their retreat across the Potomac at midnight. They had held Rockville five miles from the Potomac, as their base of supplies. This morning our forces started in pursuit. They are carrying their plunder, as well as impressed citizens with them. Our losses altogether will not exceed 500. We made considerable captures.

Latest.

BALTIMORE, July 13.—Nothing from Washington since the arrival of the early train yesterday. The report of the capture of Annapolis by the rebels is unfounded. The telegraph to that place worked all night. The rebels left 420 wounded at Frederick.

NEW YORK, July 13.—A steamer arrived from Fortress Monroe with General Baldy Smith and staff.

Sullivan's division occupied Martinsburg without opposition, and restored railroad communications to Wheeling.

General Howe has assumed command of Harper's Ferry.

PHILADELPHIA, July 13.—Information from Baltimore this morning, places Crook at Westminster, Maryland, moving south.

A fight is reported to have occurred on the railroad near Westminster yesterday, in which the rebels were driven off with loss.

A division moved from Relay House to Annapolis Junction for the relief of Washington. A messenger through from Washington last night says that our troops, with the veterans from New Orleans, can hold the city. He thinks that the rebels will not attempt to take it. They have destroyed the railroad and attempted to retreat towards Edward's Ferry.

BALTIMORE, July 13.—No indications this morning of any rebel force within 20 miles of the city.

The last of Gilmore's raiders cross'd the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad last night beyond [illegible] on their way to join the main rebel force in the vicinity of Washington.

NEW YORK, July 13.—The Post is informed by a gentleman from Baltimore that the battle of Monocacy, though defeated, was invaluable in its results. It more than held the rebels in check until the authorities could arrange to repel the attack. Gov. Bradford's call was responded to by thousands. When the bell rung at midnight 600 men hastened to the place of meeting, among them 30 veterans of the War of 1812 who aided in repelling the British invaders.

HARRISBURG, July 12.—[illegible] The last from Washington is [illegible] Yesterday was rather gloomy, and there was a great deal of uneasiness among the citizens as there was fighting on the Seventh street road and the rebels were trying to carry Fort Stevens. We still hold it. This morning confidence was restored and all considered perfectly safe. The anxiety now is that the enemy may not escape from the State without being severely punished.

The estimation of the large force of rebel cavalry that crossed the railroad at Belleville [illegible] Bladensburg is unknown. [illegible] that they will move to Point Lookout and release 20,000 prisoners.

NEW YORK, July [illegible].—The interview of Secretary Fessenden with the representatives of the Banks of New York, Philadelphia and Boston yesterday, was [illegible] after [illegible] expressing their sentiments [illegible] war [illegible] with the banks in New York [illegible] Fessenden stated that he had [illegible] policy to announce [illegible] to adjust himself to the requirements of the public service. [illegible] his views were regarded with much favor.

CHICAGO, July 12.—An officer in Sherman's army reports our forces [illegible] the Chattahoochee river [illegible] Atlanta [illegible] the natural products, being a barren plain.

ST. LOUIS, July 13.—[illegible] City, Mo., has been captured by the Bushwhackers numbering two hundred [illegible] Thirty [illegible] States [illegible] Missouri.

[illegible] July 12.—There has been no fighting in [illegible] since the capture of Aiken.

OUR IRON FOUNDRIES.—We had but a partial idea of the business of the new foundry lately erected in this city by Messrs Jones & Co., until a recent visit to those premises. We doubt if there is a better establishment of that character on the coast, and the large number of men employed attest the work already commenced to be done in Portland for the surrounding country. Besides the business of manufacturing quartz mills, engines, arastras, etc., for the mining regions, orders for machinery for saw mills, steamboats, and different other enterprises, are crowding up in our foundries. The establishment of Mr Monnastes has just turned out some very important castings for building purposes, and will in a few days commence on a very heavy piece, for spile driving. At the Oregon Iron Works several quartz mills are in the course of construction, and among them one to be manufactured for a company in the Santiam mines. This will be the first mill for that locality, and will be in operation by the 15th of October, when it is anticipated Santiam will "pungle" pretty largely. We have great facilities in Portland, at the present time, for supplying orders for machinery, and we recommend parties who are interested, not to pass the city until they have canvassed the subject, as they are apt to go farther and fare worse.

STEAMBOAT INSPECTORS.—In pursuance of an act of Congress, passed June 8th, 1864, authorizing the appointment of Inspectors for this Collection District, U. S. District Judge Deady, Supervising Inspector Burnett and Customs Collector Adams on the 8th inst appointed John Gates Inspector of boilers and machinery, and Capt John H. Couch Inspector of the hulls of steamboats, subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. A special enactment was necessary, in favor of the Oregon Collection District, there being no occasion for such Inspectorships at the time the bill became a law, in 1852. We are unacquainted with Mr. Gates, but consider Capt Couch eminently qualified for the duties imposed by his appointment. These gentlemen are now on a tour of inspection among the craft of the upper Columbia.

SHOCKING.—Dr Plummer, the obliging operator at the telegraph office in this city, has a battery arranged which operates "shockingly," to some of his customers and often unexpectedly. Copper plates are fastened on the railing of the office bar, and a wire connects from the main line, where it leaves the instrument to one of the copper plates, another wire runs from it a fellow to the gas pipe thus reaching the ground and whenever the copper plates are touched—a [illegible] through the medium of the subject's person—a full charge passes from the battery. A few days since great sport was had by testing the battery, with a Chinese subject. John at first barely touched the plate with the palms of his hands, and receiving a tickling sensation was anxious to know the occasion of it, when his curiosity was amazingly gratified to the hearty amusement of a score of bystanders. John thinks the telegraph "No belly good."

UMATILLA AND BOISE.—The Pioneer line of stages have recently placed Umatilla quite as near to the mines of Boise as the line of Messrs Thomas & Co. had made Walla Walla, and the citizens of the former place are much gratified at the success which has crowned the efforts of Messrs Ish & Co. Mr Carr, one of the junior partners of the Pioneer line, made a visit to our city, and purchased extensively in harness, etc., a few days since, for the better condition of stocking their route and he assured us that the schedule time from Umatilla City to Placerville would be three days in future. The travel to the upper country has somewhat diminished for the present season, but the active preparations made for transporting passengers and baggage next year, indicate [illegible] will go through at a rapid rate.

[illegible] —Several weeks since [illegible] accordance with an order [illegible] fenced up the bridge [illegible] Front street, as a precaution [illegible] dangers when an accident [illegible] we noticed a part [illegible] the densest part of the [illegible] Had this been [illegible] crop of vegetables [illegible] now the improvements [illegible] purposes. When the city [illegible] must come down.

ROCK FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—Ten thousand pounds of quartz rock is expected to arrive in this city by the steamer Hector G. Hunt in a few days shipped from the Comstock lode, of South Boise, to Messrs Webster & Co, of Front Street, San Francisco. The expense attending the Assayer in crushing so large an amount, would not at present justify the Portland officers in preparing machinery for the operation, but the time will soon come when it will be a profitable branch of the business, and we should like to see a suitable battery erected for the purpose, by some of our Assayers.

NOT SAFE.—It is becoming absolutely dangerous for persons to obstruct the side walks with chairs, compelling pedestrians to "git off and geow 'round," while they sit and chat for half the day. On two or three occasions recently, parties conversing comfortably in this manner, have been peremptorily routed, before the flight of some runaway horse, and it is getting dangerous, for the horse is liable to break some body's neck. Especially if he advances from the rear.

AN OBJECT OF CHARITY.—A deformed female has been soliciting alms from our public for several days past, and in answer to the questions of her benefactors, states that her name is "Mary," that she was born in Italy, and has no relatives in this country more than a brother. She is really a pitiful object, without hands or feet, and her condition attracts great attention. A small tin box is suspended from her neck, in which the almoner deposits his gifts.

WATER CARRIERS.—Two Celestials appeared on the streets yesterday, bearing upon a pole stretched from shoulder to shoulder between them, a barrel of water, which they carried from the river several blocks, to a wash house. The sight proved John's adaptness for an emergency, in case of the lack of supplies from the mains of the water works.

NEWSPAPERS AND PERIODICALS.—S. J. McCormick, of the Franklin Book Store, sent us samples of his latest dates of Eastern Illustrated and political newspapers, received per stage last evening. Containing so much in detail of the news of the war, they are very interesting, and will not remain unsold for many hours. Call early.

THE STEAMER NEW WORLD.—This handsome steamer is being completely overhauled, and her engines so repaired that she will be able to make better time than she has ever done before, when again in condition. Some time must elapse before she will be ready to make regular trips.

HORSE THIEVES ABOUT.—The barn of Samuel Brown, Esq., near Belpassi, in Marion County, was entered on the night of the 14th, and relieved of a valuable horse. A reward is offered for the horse, and a more liberal one for the thief, in another column of this paper.

SANITARY.—The Sanitary receipts acknowledged this morning show a fair footing, for one week's contributions, and the receipt pictorials, illustrating the condition of the released Libby prisoners, show how much the money is needed.

WEAK POINTS EXPOSED.—The flow of water the past few days, through the new mains laid by the water company, has had a tendency to expose the weak points in various supply pipes, making active business for the plumber and fitter.

A FATALITY.—Prussic acid, "or its equivalent," has quite recently proved fatal to sundry old dog Trays, in this city. A young canine just growing into usefulness, "petered to despair," in the hall leading to our office, on Thursday morning.

THANKS.—Wells, Fargo & Co. have our thanks for valuable favors.

Religious Discourses.—A series of discourses will be delivered, Divine Providence permitting, by the Rev. JOHN SELWOOD, B. D., on Sunday mornings in St. Stephen's Chapel, southwest corner of the Public square.

Subject—"The Voyage of Human Life." The introductory one will be delivered to-morrow, service commencing at half-past ten o'clock. The public generally are respectfully invited to attend. The Seats are all free.

FENCING AND DEFENCING.—Several weeks since the Street Commissioner, in accordance with an order from the Common Council, fenced up the bridge near the Penitentiary on Front street, as a precaution against some suit for damages when an accident might occur, and yesterday we noticed a part of Front street, proper, in the busiest part of the thoroughfare, fenced up securely. Had this been done last spring a very good crop of vegetables might have been raised there, but now the improvement would be useless, for such purposes. When the city charter is put up the fences must come down.

ROCK FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—Ten thousand pounds of quartz rock is expected to arrive in this city by the steamer Wilson G. Hunt in a few days, shipped from the Comstock lode, of South Boise, to Messrs. THE STEAMER NEW WORLD.—This handsome steamer is being completely overhauled, and her engines so repaired that she will be able to make better time than she has ever done before, when again in condition. Some time must elapse before she will be ready to make regular trips.

HORSE THIEVES ABOUT.—The barn of Samuel Brown, Esq., near Belpassi, in Marion County, was entered on the night of the 13th, and relieved of a valuable horse. A reward is offered for the horse, and a more liberal one for the thief, in another column of this paper.

SANITARY.—The Sanitary receipts acknowledged this morning show a fair footing, for one week's contributions, and the recent pictorials, illustrating the condition of the released Libby prisoners, show how much the money is needed.

WEAK POINTS EXPOSED.—The flow of water the past few days, through the new mains laid by the water company, has had a tendency to expose the weak points in various supply pipes, making active business for the plumber and fitter.

A FATALITY.—Prussic acid, "or its equivalent," has quite recently proved fatal to sundry old dog Trays, in this city. A young canine, just growing into usefulness, "petered to despair," in the hall leading to our office, on Thursday morning.

THANKS.—Wells, Fargo & Co have our thanks for valuable favors.

Religious Discourses.—A series of discourses will be delivered, Divine Providence permitting, by the Rev. John Sellwood, B. D., on Sunday mornings in St. Stephen's Chapel, southwest corner of the Public Square.

Subject—"The Voyage of Human Life." The introductory one will be delivered to-morrow, service commencing at half-past ten o'clock. The public generally are respectfully invited to attend. The Seats are all free.

Nervous Debility.—It is quite common to find in the female sex persons suffering from what are called "weak nerves," without any actual organic disease. This condition, which is really one of weakness and pain, is happily modified by the PERUVIAN SYRUP, which restores the tone of the nervous system by its direct vitalizing influence on the blood.

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.—These Bitters are universally acknowledged to be a sure preventive and cure for Fever and Ague, Flatulence, Heaviness of the Stomach, or any other like affection. Their effect upon the system is most miraculous; they give a healthy tone to the system; relieve all morbid matter, and in fact thoroughly cleanse the system of all impurities. In no case has it been known to fail, but on the contrary, new virtues have been found in its use. To those afflicted with any of the above ills of the body, the "Bitters" are offered as a speedy and certain cure. Try them and form your own opinion.—Sold by all Druggists and dealers everywhere. fe26d1m

Periodical Headache—so common in uncleared and marshy countries, Tic Douloureux, that most painful affection of the nerves of the face, are often only attacks of ague in disguise—proceeding from the same noxious influence. Jaundice, Dyspepsia and Diarrhea, are frequently but disguised forms of Intermittent Fever. Even Rheumatism and Epilepsy, often result from the same miasmal cause. For such, Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue is an unfailing remedy. By striking at the root of these affections, it applies with equal certainty, as for the cure of Fever and Ague in its simplest forms.

Imitations are abroad! Be particular to enquire for Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue. Sold everywhere.

Coughs and Colds.—The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily when taken in the early stages of the disease recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket, and taken as occasion requires.

Sheriff's Sale.
BY virtue of an execution issued out of the circuit court of the State of Oregon, for the county of Multnomah, tested July 1st, 1864, and to me directed, in a suit in the said court, wherein John H. Swift, Henry A. Hulburt and John Phillips, surviving partners of the late firm of Swift, Hulburt & Co., are plaintiffs, and Edward S. Sherman, John S. Sherman and Benjamin Stark are defendants, and commanding me, out of the joint personal property of the said defendants, or out of the separate personal property of the defendant Benjamin Stark, or if sufficient cannot be found, then out of the real property belonging to the said defendants jointly, or out of the separate property of the defendant Benjamin Stark, to levy and make the sum of three thousand seven hundred and forty-six and 78-100 dollars now due on said judgment, with interest at the rate of 10 per cent. per annum thereon from the 22d day of June, A. D., 1864; and the further sum of fifty-six and 65-100 (56 65-100) dollars, costs and disbursements, and also the costs of and upon said writ. In default of sufficient joint personal property of said defendants, and of separate personal property of defendant Benjamin Stark, and in default of any joint real property of said defendants I have this day levied upon lots one, two, three, four, five, six, seven and eight, (1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8,) in block No. forty-one (41) in the city of Portland, county of Multnomah, State of Oregon, as per plat of said city of Portland. Said block lies between First and Second Streets, and between Stark and Oak streets, and is separate property of defendant Benjamin Stark; and in pursuance of said levy, I will, on Friday, the 12th day of August, A. D., 1864, between the hours of 10 o'clock A. M., and 4 o'clock P. M., of said day, sell at public auction at the court house door, in the city of Portland, all the right, title, interest and claim of the defendant, Benjamin Stark, which he had in and to the described premises, on the 22d day of June, A. D., 1864, to satisfy the said sum of thirty-eight hundred and four 65-100 dollars ($3,804 65-100) and interests and costs.

To be opened in the City of
SAN FRANCISCO,
On the 30th day of August, 1864,
Under the direction of the Mechanics' Institute,
OF SAN FRANCISCO.
The attention of the public is invited to this great display of our skill, industry and enterprise. To explain the objects and benefits of the Exhibition, of the preparations for holding it, and the regulations for its management, a circular has been published by the Institute in letter form and widely distributed. It may be seen at any office of Wells, Fargo & Co., at any Post Office, and at many of the country stores, throughout the Pacific States and Territories.
The various Transportation Companies will, with commendable liberality, transport all articles intended exclusively for exhibition, FREE OF CHARGE; and Wells, Fargo & Co., in like manner, will take charge of them.
All articles forwarded should be labeled "For the Industrial Exhibition," and be directed to C. B. PORTER, Agent, and all communications be addressed to

WHAT KILLED HIM!
DR. HALL, IN HIS "JOURNAL OF HEALTH," speaking of the death of Washington Irving, asks the above question, and adds: "He might well have remained with us for some years to come, had it not been for advice kindly intended, no doubt, but given in thoughtlessness and reckless ignorance.

HE HAD A COLD!
which by some injudicious prescription had been converted into an Asthma. Who gave that prescription or what it was, the outside world may never know." Let me say to Dr Hall that that "prescription" was not

NEWELL'S PULMONARY SYRUP,
for that is an article that does not engender heart disease, nor is it productive of any Asthmatic affections. On the contrary, it will cure such affections; and as for

COUGHS AND COLDS,
The world never saw a better remedy, and never will, until Nature produces some new ingredient out of which to prepare it. Don't be afraid to use it freely. Every article in it is from Nature's own laboratory—the same today as they were a thousand years ago—all calculated to soothe, heal and strengthen. There is no
BETTER FAMILY MEDICINE!
Keep it in the House, use it freely, give it to your children upon the slightest indication of a Cold, and you will think and speak of it as all do that have become acquainted with its merits. REDINGTON & CO. Agents

A Night Adventure at Sea

A short time since I happened to be in Valparaiso where I made the acquaintance of an American one of the officers of the United States whaling ship Nantucket, which had run in from her fishing grounds in the Pacific to obtain a supply of water and fresh provisions, and one day, in talking over the different events of the cruise, which lasted two years, he narrated the following curious incident which had befallen them

One morning, at daybreak, when lying becalmed, they found themselves in the midst of a shoal of sperm whales, and all four of their boats were speedily lowered and chase given Two of them proved successful, and by the afternoon had returned to the ship towing their captured prey, but the others were not so fortunate Having by some blunder missed their first chance, it was not until after an arduous chase of many hours that their leading boat at last succeeded in overtaking and making fast the whale A long and desperate struggle ensued, the second crew quickly coming to the assistance of the first, line after line from both was expended by the animal which proved to be of the largest size and of immense strength and tenacity of life It tried every way to escape, sometimes "sounding," that is, descending perpendicularly to a vast depth into the recesses of the ocean, until the enormous pressure of the superincumbent water was more than even its huge strength could bear, and it was forced to return to the surface, along which it would then rush with such velocity, dragging both boats after it, that the water, divided by the sharp bows curled high in two solid walls on either hand At length, however its speed began to slacken, and the whalemen, anxious to secure their prize before darkness set in, advanced to finish him, and four more lances were rapidly hurled into the body of the monster, which, apparently exhausted by its preceding efforts, lay passive on the water No sooner, however, had the last steel penetrated, then, as if the stimulus had roused anew all its vital energies it hurled itself half out of the water, and swinging its ponderous flukes high up in the air, struck two tremendous blows in quick succession, one of which fell upon the foremost boat, cutting it completely in two, and scattering its occupants (one of whom had his thigh broken) in all directions After doing this mischief, it again sounded, and, hastily picking up their companions, and placing the wounded man in the bottom of the boat, the rest, undaunted, impatiently awaited the coming up of the animal to breathe But they waited in vain, their prey had escaped them In his last desperate effort to free himself, he had (so I was told, at least) dived so deeply, that, with his strength exhausted, he was unable again to rise, and dying below, sank still deeper The disappointed whalers sat in silence, watching their lines disappearing fathom after fathom, until their last yard was gone, when the bowman, who held his tomahawk uplifted ready to strike, was compelled to let it fall and sever the rope, lest the weight of the descending body should drag the boats down with it into the abyss

Wearied with their long day of fruitless toil, and depressed at their ill fortune, the men prepared to return to their ship, which had long before sunk beneath the horizon, for, being calm, she could not make sail to follow them After pulling for some hours, however, they felt a slight breeze spring up, which they knew would bring her down, and after a while a rocket ascending showed her position, and this signal was repeated every half hour until the vessel was within a few miles They had been resting on their oars for some time, but had once more resumed them upon noticing that the breeze was dying away and their ship likely to be again becalmed, when all at once a sound struck upon their ears, which made every man pause in astonishment It was a groan or, rather, a hoarse, heavy, smothered kind of moan, which seemed to be borne to them from across the waters, but whether from near at hand or far away they could not tell

The men stood up in their boat and listened The night was cloudy and dark, but the line between sea and sky was sufficiently distinct to show to their practiced vision the form of their own vessel which was only three miles away, but no sail was visible on that part of the horizon from whence the sounds appeared to come Thinking it possible however, that some shipwrecked boat's crew might be in their neighborhood, they joined together in a shout but there was no response audible All at once however, some flashes of light gleamed across the distant darkness and a bluish glare shone out for a minute or two, flickered, and disappeared At the same moment, a distant piercing cry, followed by moanings similar to the first they had heard rose on the night air In all their experience, whether on sea or land, they had never heard sounds like them, and, amazed and startled, and with all the superstitious fears excited to which sailors are prone, the men in the boat whispered their conjectures to each other

"There's nothing as I know of that swims the sea or flies the air could make those sounds," said one "If there was any craft anywhere within miles we could see her sails plain enough, we are too far out at sea for any coasters carrying cattle Besides there's no trade on this coast, and we're eight hundred miles from it"

"If it's from a boat what kind of a crew must she have? That's what I want to know" said a second "I know what it is to be adrift and perishing I was one time on a raft with twenty more for forty days and [illegible] mud and [illegible] raging [illegible] water [illegible] till [illegible] these [illegible]"

"Could [illegible] that [illegible] boats [illegible] follow [illegible] in all parts [illegible]"

"Well it might [illegible] — [illegible] thou hast went [illegible] Greenland [illegible] mould [illegible] was [illegible] kill [illegible] about the [illegible] such a man [illegible] heard him [illegible] place you [illegible] her [illegible] a week every night [illegible] until [illegible] her [illegible] be ga[illegible]"

I [illegible] nothing further was [illegible] also [illegible] of the [illegible] my reply and [illegible] picked up [illegible] him when he heard [illegible] swept the horizon with his [illegible] sail, he [illegible] which the light had [illegible] if they really had seen it) had [illegible] interval and [illegible] started them [illegible]

"You heard a grampus grunting or some seals snorting [illegible] trumpeting" he said "You were all [illegible] ed up and half asleep [illegible] lot of you and take a [illegible] till daylight, for we must finish [illegible] and [illegible] this fish A [illegible] you were to lose that other whale"
